Cambria

Julia's Vineyard Pinot Noir displays coastal, single vineyard elegance with an authentic sense of place – classic, refined, with a twist. WINEMAKER NOTES “Red fruit characters of cranberry, cherry, pomegranate; a balance of earth and baking spices; elegant tannins and a savory finish.” – Jill Russell, Julia's Vineyard, named for Julia Jackson in 1986, consists of ancient soils with fossilized seashells, shale, limestone and sand, with fog swept vines that have endured since the 1970s.

Katherine's Vineyard Chardonnay Fresh fruit and floral aromas dominate the nose; a touch of wet stone complements pink grapefruit, tangerine, citrus blossom, and apple flavors. The oak influence creates a nice midpalate as the wine shows a balanced acidity that carries through the long finish.

Josh Cellars

Josh Cellars was created as a tribute from son to father. Joseph Carr named the brand after his father, Josh, a hard-working veteran of the US army who was dedicated to serving his community of Berlin, NY as a volunteer firefighter.

From the start, Joseph Carr was drawn to the way a glass of wine tells a story, and can transport the drinker around the world, to beautiful vineyards and into the company of master winemakers. He started his career as a wine steward at the age of 23, eventually working as a sommelier at leading restaurants across the country.
